A dainty repast was served. The house was crowded and all left telling what a delightful time they had spent and hoping again to be entertained by the Twenty-four Merry Makers Club.

SILVER FOX CLOSE SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Came the last sad strains of "Home Sweet Home" and 300 or more of the younger social lights bade adieu to the order of Silver Fox for the season. The season's end ball was staged at Earl's Hall with Calhoun's Play Boys furnishing the music. Fortunate participants acclaim the "fox's" best yet.

As a result of the "Dudley Bill" passed by the Order sometime since, the club will observe a three-month's vacation during mid-summer hereafter, which will permit the usual summer observance of many of the members without the usual "drop-outs". The records of the club show a brilliant and successful term under the very efficient management of "Babe" Lively and Willis Dudley, the young men are to be commended on their wisdom, shrewdness and foresight.

The club will resume activities in September and as through the winter. At the time we close the club will include several E. H. Huddins, Geo. Pres.; Robert Bailey, William Hayward, Kirby, Bob; Chas. Williams, Cor. Secy.; Walter Bradley, Treas.

"Babe" Lively, Business Manager; Geo. Pres.; Floyd Clark, Fred; Willis Dudley, Publicity; Harold Bow-cher; Henry; Wesley Harrison; Lester Zimmerman; Carl Arthur; Joe Adams; Dave Miller; Tom Walker; Ed Williams; Walter Norwood; Houston Daves; Chester Carson; W. Watch for the return of the Foxes because "it won't be long now."

RE-ORGANIZED

The West Side Club District No. 9 of St. Paul Baptist Church, was re-organized at the residence of Mrs. Hattie Harris, 1850 W. 37th St. Elec-tion as follows:

Mr. Geo. Daniels, Capt.; Mrs. Susie Jones, Ass't. Capt.; Mrs. Sarah Olive-r, Chaplain; Mrs. Lula Slaughter, Secy.; Mrs. Annie Waters, Treas.; Mrs. Lewis Simms, Chm. of Boosters Club; Mrs. Hattie Harris, Chm. of Social Chm.; Mrs. Bessie Evans, Chm. of Straight's Circle; Mrs. Harriet Brown, Ass't.

We are endeavoring to make this a banner year for District Club 9 and extend a cordial welcome to all Chris-tians and friends, with the hope that you will feel the joy of an agree-able co-operation in this great effort.

GEO. DANIELS, Capt. LULA SLAUGHTER, Secy.

THE JOLLY ANGELENOS

By: Harold Alloyd

Another enjoyable evening was spent by the Jolly Angelenos Social Club on Thursday, 29th.

After the adjournment of a brief business meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paragon the club was serv-ed with a delicious lunch, casual con-versation to feel the joy of the even-ing had just begun. After congrat-ulating the host and hostess for the hospitality shown, the club motored down to the opening of the Jazzland Cabaret, upon arrival, we were es-corted to a table that had been deco-rated with flowers and a beautiful centerpiece of one of our prominent mem-bers, Mr. Robert Fortson. Through-out the evening, until the wee hours of the morning, cheers of joy were ex-pressed by all.

On Saturday, the 31st, the Jolly Angelenos attended the House Dance given by the Antique Art Club, that ended a perfect week of happiness.

THE FORUM

The Forum was a very much alive place Sunday and much important business was presented. Mr. Simons of the Water Dept. gave a short talk on the necessity of the power bonds. Mrs. Titus Alexander called the attention of the Forum to the very unfair attitude of candidate Weyer Westmore towards our group. The president, secretary and reporter were chosen as delegates to represent the Forum at the dedication of the new Hefflin Mfg. site Sunday, August 8th. It being open forum many inter-esting speeches were made. After the matter of buying one block of Hefflin Mfg. stock was referred to the Ad-visory Committee, the meeting was dismissed by the Chaplain.

The Women's Liberty Club, P. P. B. A., met with Mrs. C. H. Wash-ington at 161 E. 38th St. All had an en-joyable time, it being our social meet-ing. There were quite a number out and the evening was well spent. The hostess served elaborately for which all gave a rising vote of thanks.

Mrs. Beatrice Polk-Johnson, presi-dent of the Western Baptist Sunday School Convention, who was a mem-ber to the National B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Congress which met in Brooklyn, N. Y., returned to the city Friday. She reports a very fine and progressive session attend-ed by a very large delegation. While here she visited Atlantic City, Phila-delphia and the Seelye Centennial Exposition.

In Washington, D. C., she visited her brother whom she had not seen in sixteen years. She reports a pleas-ant and delightful stay also in Cleve-land and Chicago. A report of the Congress will be given in a later is-sue.

ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

One of the most charming and uni-que parties of the season was given by Mrs. F. B. Wiggins on Monday af-ternoon, July 26, at her residence, 1247 E. Adams in honor of Mrs. W. D. Wilson, the wife of a prominent Oakland physician and Mrs. G. M. Jones, school teacher of Phoenix, Ariz. The house was magnificently decorated in beautiful blossoms of daisies. Mrs. Wiggins was becoming-ly gowned in rose-colored georgette and gold beads.

Assisting Mrs. Wiggins were Mrs. Genevieve Jones, receiving at the door gorgeously attired in yellow crepe.

Mrs. Wilson was most becomingly attired in a hand-painted georgette. The splendid dining room with its green light and ornate design was very artistically arranged. The table was magnificently decorated in dainty rosette baskets enclosed was souve-nirs of import perfume, with favors carrying out the color scheme of daisies. Mrs. Wiggins presided at the head of the table. Covers were laid for 12. They were served Rus-sian a la salad with green olives and peas de mote, peach cream and de-licious home-made cakes. Music was rendered by Miss Myrtle Quinay. The guests expressed themselves as hav-ing enjoyed the afternoon and de-claring Mrs. Wiggins an ideal hostess.

COLORED EMPLOYEES OF 5TH STREET STORE GIVE PICNIC AT EUREKA VILLA

The Colored Employees of the 5th Street Store (better known as Wal-ter's, Inc.) gave a delightful picnic at Eureka Villa, July 31st. The party, under the leadership of Mr. Leon Prather left Seventh and Central and proceeded by bus to the hamlet nest-ling among the hills and mountains of the Eureka Villa.

The party was fortunate in having quite a bit of diversified talent with-in its ranks, viz.: Messrs. N. T. Jones, pianist; Paul Hornsby, banjo and E. A. Woodson, violinist and cellist; I. L. Leslie, star whist player; N. Hunt, croquet and tennis player.

Mr. Mostly the caterer and over-seeer at the Villa, proved a wonder-ful and charming host, nothing was left undone which would add to the comfort and zest of the party.

After a delightful day of feasting, tiking, dancing and games, the party returned again to Los Angeles safely.

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS
THE HUB OF PROSPERITY

Whether you realize it or not, the electric railway is the hub around which the whole develop-ment of your community revolves.

The electric railways render a service that is fundamental. They afford a transportation agency around which modern cities are built.

They are at the service of all the people all the time and in every kind of weather.

Directly or indirectly, every individual of the community is benefited by good service. Your business, your pleasure and your income are advanced because of the stimulus that the operation of cars adds to industry. Your real estate holdings are likewise enhanced in value.

What you want your local credit institution to do for you is to invest your own money in the Pacific Electric Ry. PASSENGER FREIGHT EXPRESS
